

Chapter 35: Speech and Language Disorders

STUDENT ASSIGNMENT

Date: _____ Name: _____

MATCHING

Match the terms with the correct definitions.

- |                                 |   |
|---------------------------------|---|
| a. Aphasia                      | 1. ___ Difficulty speaking or writing   |
| b. Apraxia of speech            | 2. ___ Difficulty understanding language  |
| c. Dysarthria                   | 3. ___ Also known as expressive-receptive aphasia   |
| d. Expressive aphasia           | 4. ___ Difficulty speaking and understanding language   |
| e. Expressive-receptive aphasia | 5. ___ Inability to correctly move the muscles used to speak, even though the muscles themselves are intact |
| f. Global aphasia               | 6. ___ Difficulty speaking clearly, because of weakness or paralysis in the muscles used for speech         |
| g. Receptive aphasia            | 7. ___ Partial or complete loss of speech and language skills   |

SHORT ANSWER

Write your answers in the spaces provided.

8. For communication to occur, a message must be sent, received, and interpreted. What process is affected in each of these conditions?

a. Receptive aphasia

_____

b. Expressive aphasia

_____

c. Expressive–receptive aphasia

---

9. What emotional effects can a language or speech disorder have on a client?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

d. _____

10. How can you communicate effectively with a client with speech or language disorders?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

d. _____

e. _____