

Migraine Headache Review

Define:

Migraine

Primary headache

Secondary headache

Vascular model

Neurogenic theory

Common migraine

Classic migraine

Mixed and transformational headaches... what are the symptoms of this headache

Cluster headaches... what are the symptoms of this headache

Drug associated headache... What are the symptoms of this headache

Chronic Paroxysmal Hemicrania... what are the symptoms of this headache

Trauma related headaches

Causes of migraine headaches

Triggering factors

Aggravating factors

What percentage of women and men are affected by migraines

What percent of people have a family history of migraines

When do these headaches typically begin

How long do symptoms last and how often do people typically get migraines

What are the associated symptoms with migraines

Does the number of triggers increase or decrease with age

How many categories of migraines are there

What are they

List points about migraines in children

What are the risk factors that need to be reported to a physician immediately

What symptoms warrant reporting the headache to a physician within 24 hours

Warning symptoms that warrant immediate reporting to a physician

Contraindications

What testing is done for migraines?