

HIV/AIDS

Define

HIV

AIDS

Lymphocytes – both T and B

Natural Killer cells

When was this disease first recognized?

When is the person diagnosed with AIDS?

What are the AIDS defining diseases?

Can HIV survive outside the body?

How is HIV spread?

Which body fluids contain sufficient Quantities of HIV to cause infection?

Which ones do NOT?

Where do most people with AIDS live?

How many people are infected with AIDS?

What is the cumulative number of deaths since 1981?

What percentage of people with AIDS are women?

What is the chance an infected woman's baby will be born with AIDS?

Who is most commonly infected with AIDS?

In Africa

In asia and the pacific

Eastern Europe and the common wealth states

Industrialized countries of Australia, New Zeland, Europe and North America

Latin America and the Carribbean

What is the cause of HIV?

What are the contributing factors to the rate of HIV infection?

How can massage help someone with HIV/AIDS?

What are the symptoms?

How long can someone be asymptomatic?

Does every person infected with HIV die from AIDS?

What peripheral manifestations or rheumatic manifestations may occur?

What are the contraindications?

What would you see in your assessment?

What is the massage for a person with AIDS/HIV?

What is the difference in massage for someone in a palliative state?

What is the self care for this condition?